Plan Three

Research Paper Presentation for AIP or Springer Series:

- This plan is for authors who wish to have their research presented at the conference and also published in the prestigious AIP and Springer Series. Authors will present their papers during scheduled sessions, and after a peer review process, successful papers will be included in one of these well-regarded scientific publication series.
The Paper Presentation plan for AIP and Springer Series is designed for authors seeking to present their research and have it considered for publication in high-impact outlets. Accepted papers will undergo a rigorous double-blind review process. Those that meet the criteria for AIP will proceed to publication with the American Institute of Physics, reflecting a high standard of scientific contribution. Other selected papers, which demonstrate significant merit, will process for publication in the ISEM Springer Series, ensuring they reach an international audience. This plan provides authors with valuable opportunities for recognition and dissemination within esteemed publication venues, enhancing the visibility and impact of their research.

Please Visit (Call for Papers) Section at the Main page before submit your paper.
